Dear Parents and Carers,

We are excited to let you know that the children will be taking part in a fantastic
African Drumming Workshop on Friday 13th November!

This exciting, hands-on workshop will give the children the opportunity to explore African rhythms, develop their sense of beat and experience the joy of making music together.

The workshop will be a wonderful introduction to our upcoming term of Samba drumming lessons, where the children will build on their musical skills, learn different rhythms and develop their confidence in playing percussion instruments as part of a group.

Throughout the workshop and subsequent lessons, the children will develop their listening skills, coordination, teamwork and creativity, whilst having lots of fun!

The cost of the workshop will be £4 per child. We kindly ask for a contribution of £4 to help cover the cost of providing this exciting musical experience. This will be available to pay through parent pay.

We are really looking forward to giving the children this wonderful opportunity and can't wait to hear the rhythms they create!

Thank you for your continued support.

Best wishes,

Annie Wood
